REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art does not teach or fairly suggest (taken in combination with the other claimed features) a lid having a first indentation to contact the first electrode and a bottom having a second indentation to contact the second electrode, the first and second cross-section getting narrower as the first indentation and the second indentation progress into an interior housing (claims 1-7); a lid having a first indentation, the first indentation having a first cross-section that gets narrower inside the housing; and a bottom having a second indentation, the second indentation having a second cross-section that gets narrower inside the housing (claims 8, 18-20); and a lid having a first indentation, the first indentation having a first cross-section that gets narrower inside the housing; and a bottom having a second indentation, the second indentation having a second cross-section that gets narrower inside the housing (claims 9-17)

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

2. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
